Monday is County Court day.

The firm of Gray & Rodman, grocers on St. Clair street, was dissolved on Thursday.

The fine $85 shot-gun, which was raffled off Saturday night at Mr. Hal Gaines' saloon, was won by Mr. W. H. Marlow with a throw of 44.

Elder Paph. Julian has accepted a call to take charge of a church in Sedalia, Kansas, and he left Madison, Indiana, with his family, on Wednesday for their new home in the West.

Mr. L. B. Marshall has sold out his fruit and vegetable store, on the corner of Main and St. Clair streets, to Messrs. Jake Evans and Ed. O'Hara, who will run it under the firm name of Evans & O'Hara.

We regret to learn of the death of little Albert Hodges Thomas, second son of Mr. W. P. and Mrs. Carrie B. Thomas, which occurred at the home of his parents in Philadelphia, Pa., on Sunday morning, of diphtheria.

The raffle to decide whoshall receive the presents offered by Mr. Phillip Selbert to his customers will take place on Thursday evening next, at his store on St. Clair street. Every one having a chance should be present in person or by proxy.

Albert G. Bacon Post, No. 83, G. A. R., will hold its regular meeting, in the small hall in Odd Fellows' Temple, on Monday evening, Jan. 5, at 7 o'clock. A full attendance of the comrades is desired. By order of THE COMMANDER.

There will be a meeting of Frankfort Council, No. 7, Royal Templars, at the photograph gallery of Mr. H. G. Mattern on Monday evening next, at 7 o'clock. A full attendance of the members is desired, as business of importance will be transacted.

The January term of United States District Court will begin at the Court House in this city on Monday, at 10 o'clock, and Deputy U. S. Marshal Con. McCarthy wishes to remind the lawyers having cases in that court that he is ready to serve summonses for them.

An elegant supper was given by Mr. D. L. Haly at the Old Dominion restaurant, on Saturday night, to the members of the Coon Club. Mr. Frank Kennedy superintended the preparation of the feast, and it was gotten up in a style that reflected great credit upon that popular resort of hungry mortals.

F. M. Wayne, the jeweler and watch repairer, who has for several months been running an establishment in part of the tailor shop of Mr. M. Nichols, left the city suddenly on Sunday night, leaving numerous unpaid bills and carrying off valuable articles left with him to be repaired.

John Fields and Samuel J. Faulkner, two men charged with barn burning in Woodford county, were arrested in this city Wednesday morning by Mr. Chas. Noonan. The first on a warrant issued by the police judge of Versailles, and the latter on a warrant issued by Squire J. W. Bohannon upon information given by Fields after his arrest. Both men confessed their guilt, in the presence of several witnesses, after they were arrested. They were taken to Versailles that afternoon for trial.

The Wilbur Opera Company came and saw and conquered, and their efforts were patronized by large and well-pleased audiences. The reputation they have achieved elsewhere was fully endorsed here. The chorus is large and well drilled, efficient in voice and attractive in appearance, and the soloists are all good vocalists and capable actors.—Cleveland Sentinel. Opera House Jan. 7th.

The remains of Kentucky's celebrated sculptor, Joel T. Hart, arrived in this city Thursday afternoon from Naples, Italy, to which point Judge Chas. E. Kinneid was sent by the Governor for them.

The young Ladies' Cooking Club of this city gave an elegant entertainment at the Governor's Mansion on Monday evening. A large company of young people were in attendance, who passed the evening delightfully.

The following officers were elected Monday evening by Capital Lodge, No. 6, I. O. O. F., for the ensuing six months:

C. A. Nelson, Noble Grand.
C. H. Cultor, Vice Grand.
N. F. Richardson, Treasurer.
J. R. Williams, Secretary.
B. F. Firestone, Host.

Mr. C. W. Saffell has provided himself with a splendid outfit for his dairy, purchased a fine lot of young cows, and a nice new wagon, and is now prepared to fill all orders for milk. Persons wishing to make regular engagements should call on him at the Post office or call the Saffell residence by telephone.

The following ladies received New Year callers on Thursday:

Mrs. Gov. Knott and Mrs. Wickliffe Chapman, assisted by Mrs. Hurdle Mason, Miss Annie Middleton and Miss Ella VanCleave, of Louisville; Misses Kate Knott, Jennie Knott and Pearl Edmonds, of Lebanon. Misses Anne and Emily Thomas. Misses Lizzie Macklin, assisted by Miss Mattie Crutcher, of this county, and Misses Annie and Ruby Macklin.

Wilbur's Opera Company opened at Tweddle Hall last night. Best troupe ever seen in this city. Large company; very talented and admirably costumed. Most of the chorus are young ladies from sixteen to twenty years of age, graceful and attractive, all in full voice like German canaries in June.—Albany Evening Post.

Opera House January 7th.

As the last amendment to the city charter prohibits the Council from holding executive sessions, most of the newly elected Council held a caucus on Thursday night and agreed to elect the following officers when they are sworn in next Tuesday night:

City Clerk—F. V. Gray.
City Treasurer—Jas. Rodman.
City Assessor—Dan Driscoll.
City Physician—Dr. J. L. Price.
Chief of Police—W. P. Hudson, sr.
Policemen—Henry Brown, C. W. Merchant, W. H. Williams, John Stephens, George Smith, James Hurst and Chas. Noonan.

All the present Fire Department are to be retained, except Ed. H. Grant, fireman of the engine, and he is to be succeeded by Ed. Haly.

The Academy was overcrowded last night to witness the performance of the Wilbur Company, large numbers being compelled to stand during the performance. The company is first-class, the costumes pure and pretty, and both chorus and principals sing well together, while the acting is such as to win hearty applause and almost constant meriment.—Cleveland Leader.

Pleasant View.

Christmas has been very dull in this section.

There have been a good many singings in this community which have been successes so far.

Old uncle Alfred Rodgers, a highly respected citizen of this section, died on Monday morning, December 29th.

Miss Ida C. Bell returned from Frankfort, after an absence of a week, and took charge of her school at this place Monday morning.

Mr. James Huette visited the family of W. T. Watkins Saturday night and Sunday. His old friends were glad to meet with him, as he is a nice young man.

There was a singing given at Mr. J. T. Rine's last Saturday night, which proved a perfect success. A large crowd were in attendance, good order was maintained and all were pleased. RED EYE.

A Lawyer's Opinion of Interest to all.

J. A. Tawney, Esq., a leading attorney of Winona, Minn., writes: "After using it for more than three years, I take great pleasure in stating that I regard Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, as the best remedy in the world for Coughs and Colds. It has never failed to cure the most severe colds I have had, and invariably relieves the pain in the chest."

PIANOS AND ORGANS! --- EASY TERMS!

In buying a Piano or Organ many persons have the idea that they must pay all cash. There are thousands of families who have an income of fifty to one hundred dollars per month, who can easily spare from five to ten dollars of it and scarcely miss it. To all such we would say, do not wait to lay up enough to pay for an instrument before buying, but see or write us at once for our terms. We will satisfy you that we are giving easier terms than any Music House in the United States.

GEORGE A. LEWIS.
Editor and Publisher.
FRANKFORT, JANUARY 3, 1895.

Mrs. Letitia Church, mother of Messrs. Church Brothers, died at the family residence, on Main street, Thursday evening.

Death of Geo. Craddock.

The sad news was received by Judge G. W. Craddock on Saturday morning that his son George, who has been residing near Monterey, Owen county, for the past year, had been shot and dangerously wounded the evening before in a fight with a neighbor. He immediately left for Monterey, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Laura, and Mr. Mark Calmes, and arrived there only in time to see him die.

No one saw the difficulty except a little son of the man who fired the fatal shot, and it is hard to learn the exact facts in the case. It seems that George had a fuss with a man by the name of John Tice, who lives between the Craddock farm and Monterey, several weeks ago, while at Rice's house, in an intoxicated condition, and that bloodshed at that time was only prevented by Rice's wife. Friday both men were in Monterey and both left for home about the same time, George a short distance in advance. When he arrived at Rice's house he got down and went in, and Mrs. Rice seeing him coming fastened the door. He began knocking at the door, when Rice sent his little boy, who was with him, on to tell George he was not at home and to go away. As Craddock paid no attention to the boy, and beat on the door harder, Rice came on up and attempted to get him away from the house, when he claims George attacked him with a knife, and to save his own life he drew his pistol and fired, the ball striking Craddock on the left side of the nose and ranging back, inflicting a wound that proved fatal the next day at four o'clock.

The remains were brought to this city and interred in the family lot in the cemetery Monday afternoon. Rice went to Monterey and surrendered to the officers of that place.

Barn Burning.

Owing to the number of tobacco barns that were being burned in Woodford county the past fall, an association, composed of the following gentlemen: S. T. Leavy, G. M. Ennack, C. T. Freeman, J. L. Cogar, Jno. O. Rodgers, Henry Nessler, Jno. J. Rodgers, W. T. McConnell, T. M. Parrish, Jno. Steele, W. T. Davis, Sam. H. Shouse, Jno. R. McKee, W. E. Rogers, all farmers of Woodford county, was organized for their own protection, and a reward of $1,000 offered for the arrest and conviction of any person who should burn the barn of any member of the association, but for a long time failed to catch any of the incendiaries. A few days since they were informed that if they would offer $500 reward for the arrest and conviction of the man who set fire to the barn of Mr. Black Graves, near Midway, who was not a member of their association, that he would be caught. Mr. Graves guaranteed $200 of the amount and the association the balance, and the result was the arrest near Midway of not only the man who burned Mr. Graves' barn but one who confessed to the burning of the barn of Major Ennack, a member of the association, and also to the capture of two men in this city on Wednesday, charged with barn burning in that county.

As these thirteen gentlemen pledged themselves to pay this reward for the purpose of getting rid of a lot of roundheads who, if left alone, would soon have destroyed every barn in the country, it is not just that they should be left to bear this burden alone. Every farmer largely interested in the raising of tobacco, no matter whether a resident of Woodford or not, and every fire insurance company doing business in this section should contribute to the fund. It is a matter of great importance to all of them that the country should be rid of these dangerous characters and a few men should not be allowed to pay all the expense of having them brought to justice.

The following officers were elected by the Masonic Lodges in this city on Saturday evening, December 27th:

HIRAM, No. 4.
Geo. A. Lewis, W. M.
V. A. Kaltenbrun, S. W.
H. G. Mattern, J. W.
W. T. Reading, Treas.
E. Whitesides, Sec'y.
Sidney French, S. D.
Peter Light, J. D.
Gus. Shaefer, S. & T.
ESOTERIC, No. 522.
Jas. A. Murray, W. M.
R. M. Grant, S. W.
W. S. Caplinger, J. W.
U. Keonen, Treas.
Oscar Horncourt, Sec'y.
W. H. Phythian, S. D.
J. F. Kershaw, J. D.
Gus. Shaefer, S. & T.

The Master of Hiram Lodge was re-elected for his seventh term and the Master of Esoteric for his third.

After both Lodges had finished their business Mr. Jas. A. Murray, who had just been elected Master of Esoteric Lodge, invited the brothers, when they had "called from labor," to go with him to Buhl's Hotel, where he had prepared refreshments for them. The supper was gotten up in handsome style, and was greatly enjoyed by twenty-five of the brethren. At the close toasts were given and responded to, and every one went away wishing Jim a long life and many re-elections.

The Hop given by the young men of the city at the Capital Hotel on Tuesday evening was well attended and passed off very pleasantly indeed. In addition to a large number of our home young people many ladies and gentlemen from other places were in attendance. The ladies who participated in the dance were Misses Maggie Clay and Lake Barnes, of Paris, Miss Fannie Tuley, of New Albany, Indiana, Miss Annie Middleton, of Louisville, Misses Jennie and Willie Robb, of Woodford, Miss Jennie Patterson, of Sangamon county, Illinois, Miss Eloise Gordon, of Tennessee, Miss Mary Belle Wallace, of Louisville, Miss Westfall, of New York, and Misses Cordie Cannon, Lena Stewart, Kittle Todd, Kate and Nellie Sanders, Lillian Sawyer, Annie Duvall, Mattie Crutcher, Joe Gray, Bessie Markham, Lottie Stanton, Ruby Macklin, Maggie Taylor, Emily Thomas, Marie Hardie, Mrs. Geo. V. Triplett, and Miss Fannie Murphy, of this city.

The gentlemen were Mr. Donnegan, of Louisville, Mr. Hull, of Harrodsburg, Judge J. D. W. McKee, of Lawrenceburg, Mr. Gilbert Mastin, of Woodford, Mr. Rob. Berryman, of Versailles, H. C. McDowell, Jr., of Lexington, and Messrs. Geo. L. Payne, Gray McLean, Henry Murray, Grant Green, Jr., Joe and John Rodman, Ed. Stanton, Walter Franklin, Jr., Ruford Hendrick, Sherwood Major, Lucien Waggener, Jr., Henry Sawyer, John Stewart, Hoge, Thos. Green, Crittenden and Jas. M. Todd, Will Lindsey, John Murphy, Ed. H. Grant, Fall Taylor, R. W. McKee, Wallace Middleton, W. C. Sneed, Eugene S. Ashton, Hon. Geo. V. Triplett, Dr. J. W. Murray and Dr. J. S. Collins, of this city.

There were a number of strange gentlemen who danced, as well ladies who were in attendance and did not dance, whose names we did not learn.

A SMALL FARM, CONTAINING 25 ACRES of land, lying near Spring House Church, is offered for sale at a bargain. It has a good dwelling, a haying well and two never failing springs of good water upon it, and the fencing is all in good repair. Will give possession January 1, 1895.

R. S. SCANTLIN.

A C A R D !

ON THE FIRST DAY OF JANUARY, 1885,

I will adopt a new system in my business, and after that date,

SELL STRICTLY FOR CASH.

The credit plan has been so abused in the past few years that it is no longer to the interest of either the buyer or seller to continue it. Besides its being a constant annoyance to the merchant, it is a very expensive luxury to the cash and prompt paying credit customers, as they have not only to pay a fair profit on all the goods they buy, but an additional profit to make up for money lost on those customers who don't pay at all, and to pay for book-keepers, collectors, and all other expenses of the credit system. In making this change I am sure that it is in the interest of my customers, if not to myself, as I will save them on all future purchases at least 5 to 25 per cent.

Thanking my old friends for their kind support in the past, and hoping to receive their patronage in the future by serving them faithfully, I am

Respectfully,

L. B. MARSHALL,

Successor to Marshall & Meagher.
